

Deductible Duck's Guide to Salvation Army Donation Valuations

Use these estimated thrift-store value ranges to value items you donate to the Salvation Army. Each item shows a low and high estimate. Pick a value within the range that matches the item's age and condition. You assign the value, not the charity, and items should be in good used condition or better. For your situation, check with a qualified tax professional.

Automobiles & Vehicles

Vehicles are valued differently from household items. If the charity sells the car, your deduction is generally limited to the gross sale proceeds. Contact the Salvation Army before donating a vehicle, and keep the paperwork they provide.

Your Salvation Army Donation Checklist

Print this page and fill it in as you donate. Keep it with your receipt. For each item, choose a value within the range shown earlier in this guide that matches the item's age and condition.

[illegible]

Tip: for any single item or group of similar items valued over $500, you'll generally need to file IRS Form 8283 with your return. Keep your receipts for everything.
